

Enlightening through TV: USCAR Public Diplomacy, 1950-1972

Book Contents

Illustrations 3

Editorial Notes and Abbreviations 19

DVD Contents 20

Maps 22

Introduction TOSHIHIKO KISHI 23

1. US Military Public Diplomacy in Postwar Okinawa: How USCAR Films Were Produced, Utilized and Preserved TOSHIHIKO KISHI 27

2. TV Program Production by the Audio-Visual Division, USCAR and the Restoration of Its Programs: People, Time and Place, Productive Industries of Okinawa, and The Special Program RISA NAKAYAMA 73

3. Welfare as a USCAR Propaganda Tool: Public Health and Social Welfare Projects Featured in People, Time and Place HIDEKAZU SENSUI 115

Essays

1. What Was USCAR? ATSUSHI TORIYAMA 156

2. The High Commissioner of the Ryukyu Islands HIDEKO YOSHIMOTO 158

3. The Ryukyuan-American Cultural Center TSUYOSHI KOHAGURA 160

4. Okinawans Studying in the US under the GARIOA Student Program KINUKO YAMAZATO 162

5. The University of the Ryukyus Shikiya Library and a Lottery NORIKO KUGAI 164

6. USCAR Women's Clubs: Two Types YOKO MUKAI 166

7. The Representation of "The Gift of Love:" Christmas in Okinawa under Occupation KYOKO AGUNI 168

8. Anecdotes on "Ryukyuan-American Friendship" KATSUHIKO SHINZATO 170

9. Postwar Kumejima HIROSHI NAKACHI 172

10. Zamami Island under US Military Rule YUKIE OSHIRO 174

11. Film Production in Postwar Okinawa and the Shadow of USCAR TOSHIKAZU SERA 176

12. US Military Psychological Operations and Okinawa SOMEI KOBAYASHI 178

13. USCAR in the History of the Okinawan Sugar Industry KIKOTO ZAMAMI 180

14. The Takunan Steel Company WAKANA TAMAKI 182

Afterword and Acknowledgements RISA NAKAYAMA 185

Miscellany

1. An Interview with Akio Uehara, a Former USCAR A. V. Specialist 191

2. Program Titles of People, Time and Place 217

3. The Script for “The Electrification Plan of Remote Islands by the Ryukyu Electric Power Corporation: Kumejima”	235
4. High Commissioners, Chief Executives and Other Government Officials	247
5. Chronology (1945-1972)	251
Further Readings	267
List of Illustrations	272
Index	275
The Editors and Contributors	280